

it is impossible for the viewing and listening public to hear true and fair media if only a few companies control the airways and networks.

A prime example is the Fox network.

The control of the media in this country must not be owned and controlled by a few. This is what happened to the media of Germany and Russia.

It is your job to protect us....the public from these controls